1 I seek Cabinet approval to travel to Canada and the United States for counterpart visits from 20 to 29 January 2020 in my capacity as the Minister of Defence.

2 The Prime Minister has approved the travel in-principle, and House leave has been approved from the Party Whip.

Purpose of Travel

Canada

4 Prior to my engagements in Ottawa, I propose visiting Base Esquimalt in British Columbia, the home port for Canada's Maritime Forces Pacific and the site of the Frigate Systems Upgrade for HMNZS Te Mana and HMNZS Te Kaha. Visiting the site of the upgrades would provide the opportunity to ascertain a first-hand understanding of the status of the project on the ground, to thank Canada for their unwavering support during this upgrade [redacted] s6(a)

United States

5 A visit to the United States would acknowledge the strong defence relationship between our two countries, a core part of the broader bilateral relationship. High level visits are an important pillar of this relationship [redacted] s6(a) [redacted] I propose visiting Washington, the United Nations Headquarters in New York and travelling through Honolulu on my return to New Zealand.
